HOW TO SELL

Your role as Spring Product Sale Chair is to teach your Scouts how to sell. To get there, your unit needs to employ all three sales methods. Create a plan and train your Scouts in all three methods. This will give you the best results.

Door to Door - Take your Sales Catalog for a trip around the neighborhood. Highlight your favorite plants! Ask your Patrol or Den to schedule a “Blitz Day.” This is a day when your fellow Scouts select a neighborhood and go door-to-door as a group to ask people to buy plants.

Show & Sell (store front sales) - Set up a table and share your product catalog on the spot. This can be an effective approach in the right location at the right time, but don’t hang your hat on this approach alone. Focus on multiple locations at the same time. Be sure not to over schedule Scouts.

Sell at Work - Great for Mom and Dad to help their Scout. Have Mom and Dad take the Sales Catalog to work. Most importantly, when you are selling plants tell the people what the money is for!

Sales techniques for Scouts

Scout parents will appreciate that selling plants provides their child with an opportunity to improve self-confidence through public speaking. When selling, Scouts should:

- Wear their uniform.
- Smile and introduce themselves (first name only).
- Explain that they are raising money for summer camp, day camp, etc.
- Share a personal testimony of their time in Scouting.
- Explain that plants can beautify the community
- Close the sale. Thank the buyer.

Each unit should have a Spring Product Chair. Their responsibilities are to manage all aspects of the sale and to clearly communicate sale information to your leaders, parents and Scouts.

Responsibilities:

- Arrange pick-up of product catalog/guidebook, if needed.
- Set a unit goal and per Scout sales goal.
- Secure locations and coordinate storefront sales and Blitz Days.
- Explain the Spring Product Sale program to your adult leaders.
- Recruit one or more parents as Assistant Chairs, as needed.
- Plan sales activities.
- Update your unit each week on sales total (post results at unit meeting place).

SAFETY & COURTESY

Review these safety and courtesy tips with Scouts and parents.

- Sell with another Scout or with an adult.
- Never enter anyone's home.
- Never sell after dark – unless with an adult.
- Don't carry large amounts of money.
- Always walk on the sidewalk and driveway.
- Be careful of dogs while selling.
- Whether or not the person buys your spring product always say, "thank you."

When selling the spring products Scouts are actually selling:

- Character
- A better community
- The benefits of Scout Summer Camp

Emphasize that each product sold helps a Scout go to camp, purchase a uniform, or attend other Scouting activities. Camp Spring sales are successful because communities want to support Scouting.
